Dear Aunt Anne.

In two or three days I will write you a long letter circumstances prevent my getting at my desk with any degree of repose for the present. Alas! the rumor of Louise's unfortunate matrimonial complications is only too true. I have been greatly disturbed by it and pondering over it ever since the first clap came in mid-Summer. It has all seemed wretched and so unnecessary - brought about by an unjudicious mother I think. I am going to send you the whole correspondence since I have had on the subject and let you form your own conclusions.

I would not take a one sided view of the affair and so have heard from San Francisco as well as Santa Barbara -

We are all well and I am just out of a bronchial cold not as severe as I often go through -

We are through with the "Summer anties" as you put it - but much deeper in winter capers - Miss Leonard (Mary Louisa Victor) is with us for ten days and we are enjoying her visit greatly.

She is so bright and intelligent and quite up to every thing at home and abroad.
So we three including Margaret Jr. are off for a hitchhike in Brooklyn with the Peters girls. Emily Pette ^{Loomis} ~~clings~~ to Rochester visiting friends - but will return to Brooklyn soon.
I will write a real letter next week - of course I should love to see you and will write about a prospective
